Description

Willow is an exciting composition created by a clear tubular glass, which encases sparkling crystal-like beads on chrome rods. Our Willow LED pendants merge the use of the state-of-the-art light source with a soft and whimsical design. The clear tubular borosilicate glass shape is equipped with a bottom ridge, where the crystal-rod accents are nestled in position. For the creative side that wants to be expressed, that same bottom ridge can be used to support other customized accents. So express yourself and make it your own...
